

The Fight at Lookout Mountain.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, October 31.]

MISSIONARY RIDGE, October 29.—The Federals have crossed a division at Brown's Ferry, three miles below Chattanooga, and are in possession of Raccoon Mountain, which they are apparently fortifying. A rapid shelving of our camps on the west side of Lookout Mountain was kept up by the enemy to-day, our batteries replying. No casualties reported. Heavy skirmishing anticipated on our left.

A special dispatch to the Intelligencer, of the same date, says: "Two divisions, Howard's and Hooker's, came down yesterday from Bridgeport to Lookout Valley, and were joined by Granger's corps last night, which crossed at Brown's Ferry three miles below Chattanooga. Jenkins' division attacked the enemy at two o'clock this morning, and captured a number of wagons and twenty-five prisoners. The enemy now occupy the west side of Lookout Creek, and Longstreet's forces the east side."

The Alabama, as we learn from a letter from Cape Town, had been, with her two prizes, to the Guano Islands, but returned to Simon's Bay on October 16. The Georgia left Simon's Bay on August 21, and was supposed to have gone to St. Mauritius for repair. The Tuscaloosa had gone east.

THEATRE.—Three pieces again to-night at the Theatre "Sarah's Young Man," "Sudden Thoughts," and "Cousin Joe" in each of which Mr. and Mrs. Bi-hops will appear.

SKIFF'S MINSTRELS.—A fine programme for to-night at Liberty Hall.

From Mr. Sam. C. Gregory's oyster saloon, southwest corner of King and Pitt streets, we received to day some of the largest and most delicious oysters we ever saw or tasted. Mr. G. keeps at his saloon always, the best the market affords. His steamed oysters are particularly fine.

PIANO MUSIC—(Continued.)—T.—The Last Rose of Summer; To Him that Giveth us this Song; Thou art Gode, Gentle Sister; the Prayer my Mother taught me That gets ahead of me; 'Tis sad to leave our childhood's Home; They only make believe; Thy voice hath a charm; The day our Mother died; The days of our youth; The songs of other years; Twilight Dews; Thou hast learned to love another; Tom O'Shaunter; Trooper's Death.

IMPORTANT DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE U. S.
JOY AND HAPPINESS TO ALL!

S. ROSEWALD versus Corporation of Alexandria, Va.

The testimony of all the witnesses in the above suit having been carefully examined, it has been this day decided that the following items are true to the letter and can hereafter be relied on as established facts.

Item 1.—Delaine, Calicoes and all dress goods 10 per ct. cheaper than at any other establishment in the city.

Item 2.—Bleached and unbleached muslins of the best quality and at the cheapest rates.

Item 3.—Cloaks, Shawls, &c., of the greatest beauty and durability and at prices that must remain unequalled in the city.

Item 4.—That all of the select stock of this establishment is disposed of at New York prices.

Cut out these items for future reference.

Respectfully, S. ROSEWALD.
